

NJEITC puts up to $2,557 into the pockets of working families

Claiming the NJEITC is easy.

For Tax Year 2019, NJ is giving 39% of the federal EITC to those who claim it on their tax return.

Step 1: Apply for and claim a federal EITC.

Step 2: File a NJ Resident Income Tax Return (Form NJ-1040) to claim the NJEITC.

Step 3: Wait for your refund!

To be eligible for the NJEITC, you must:

- › File for and receive a federal Earned Income Tax Credit;
- › Be a resident of this state who works or earns income;
- › Have a qualifying child or be at least 25 years old and under 65;
- › Meet the income limits for your filing status; and
- › Have a valid Social Security number.
